

Urban Renewal Strategy Review Partnering Organization Programme

The Partnering Organization Programme is part of the public engagement initiatives of the Urban Renewal Strategy (URS) Review conducted by Development Bureau, HKSAR. The objective is to broaden the reach to the public and promote active public participation in the URS Review. Urban Renewal Authority (URA) is also the supporting organization.

In this issue, The Hong Kong Institution of Engineering Surveyors will prepare draft letter on several surveying related topic. We hope our contribution can make an initiative insight to Government on Hong Kong urban renewal strategy review.

More information can be found at URSR web site:

<http://www.ursreview.gov.hk/eng/home.html>

The screenshot displays the website for the Urban Renewal Strategy Review. The header features a banner with the title "Urban Renewal Strategy Review" and a photograph of a public consultation meeting. Below the banner is a navigation menu with options for "Public Engagement", "Review Process", "Steering Committee", and "Publications and Related Documents". The "Public Engagement" section is highlighted, showing a list of links: "Objectives", "Eligibility", "Assessment of Application", "Application Procedures", "Form of Support to Partnering Organizations", "Terms and Conditions", and "Application Form Download". The "Objectives" link is selected, leading to a page with the following text:

Objectives

The Partnering Organization Programme (the Programme) is part of the public engagement initiatives of the Urban Renewal Strategy (URS) Review conducted by Development Bureau. The objective is to broaden the reach to the public and promote active public participation in the URS Review. A-World Consulting Ltd., the public engagement consultant of the URS Review, is the implementation agent of the Programme. Urban Renewal Authority (URA) is the supporting organization. The Programme will be implemented in two phases.