(CEDD)
- Commentator Mr. Raymond WK Chan
Corporate Member, Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors, United Kingdom
Corporate Member, Hong Kong Institution of Chartered Surveyors
(General Practice)
Technical Advisor, Commissioner for Heritage Office, Development
Bureau, HKSAR Government
- Contents Land is one of the most valuable assets of Hong Kong which touches every aspect of our daily life. It is becoming ever more challenging to ensure an adequate and steady land supply. To meet the challenges, the Government plans to enhance the land supply strategy. The objective of this talk is to let participants know of the initiative and to listen to their views. The Government also advocates adopting a balanced six-pronged approach, which includes reclamation & rock cavern development as two viable options to provide land for Hong Kong in the long run.
